MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

MILL CITY MUSEUM One of 26 Fantastic Ways to Visit Minnesota History

See how a famous flour mill exploded and have a blast learning about Minneapolis history at the “Most Explosive Museum in the World”—Mill City Museum (Minneapolis). Catch the “Minneapolis in 19 Minutes Flat” film, ride the Flour Tower multimedia elevator show, enjoy hands-on fun in the Water Lab and Baking Lab, see a flour explosion demo, and take in amazing city views from the rooftop observation deck.

Check out the year-round exhibits at the Minnesota History Center (St. Paul), take a tour of Minnesota’s Downton Abbey, the James J. Hill House (St. Paul), and visit Historic Fort Snelling (St. Paul), a reconstructed 1820s fort on the Mississippi River.

Or take a road trip to Split Rock Lighthouse (north of Two Harbors) on Lake Superior’s north shore and meet the animals at the Oliver Kelley Farm (Elk River). For a complete list of sites and details, go to mnhs.org.

Mill City Museum is located in downtown Minneapolis along the riverfront, 3 blocks north of the Vikings Stadium, near the Guthrie Theater.

MINNESOTA ZOO

Where Amazing Lives.
Every day.

Discover over 4,700 animals from tropical rainforests, northern plains, oceans and reefs, the woodlands of Minnesota, Russia's Far East, and a family farm. Just minutes south of the Mall of America, the Minnesota Zoo is open 363 days a year with miles of indoor and outdoor trails. It's where amazing lives. Every day.

MAY 28-SEPTEMBER 5: This summer, bring your family to the Minnesota Zoo, where amazing lives and dinosaurs roam! See life-like Stegosaurus, Brachiosaurus, Allosaurus and more. You can even snap a selfie with a T. rex. (Just watch out for the Dilophosaurus – he spits.) The Minnesota Zoo is the only place your family can experience dinosaurs and some of their living friends who survived extinction. (Dinosaurs is a separate fee-based exhibit).

HOURS: The Minnesota Zoo is open year round except Thanksgiving and December 25. Opens daily at 9am. Closing times vary by season.

GROUPS: Discounts for 15 or more. Team building, on-site catering and meeting space options are also available.

VISIT SAINT PAUL

If you really knew Saint Paul, what would you say? That it's Minnesota's Capital City in the State of Hockey? That a bootlegger named Pig's Eye influenced its start on the shores of the nation's most storied river? Fact is, everyone who loves this unique and inspiring city has their own story to tell about what to do, see, hear and taste in a place that's relaxingly full of welcoming old world charm and bursting with new energy. Make it yours with #MYSAINTPAUL. Call or go to visitsaintpaul.com to request a free 2016 Insider's Guide.
